50X1-HUM

3. More than 100 former Japanese storehouses in Choushuitzu have recently been torn down by Soviet troops.

50X1-HUM

4. Soviet Army Headquarters, Port Arthur, is in the Engineering College, Ta Yang Chien 3su (大陽間司). The Soviet commander in Chinchou (121-43, 39-07), Kaohuik'efu (Chinese phoneticization), was relieved of his post [redacted]

50X1-HUM

Soviet artillery and tank corps in Port Arthur, Dairen and Chinchou have been holding maneuvers. Ammunition stored in various places in 1946 has been moved to Port Arthur. [redacted] 500 Soviet tanks and 40 heavy guns were loaded on vessels in Port Arthur. It has been learned that these weapons were destined for North Korea. (Number of tanks evaluated [redacted])

50X1-HUM

Soviet forces in the Chinchou area have been moving their storehouses, troops and wooden buildings to the Liangchiatien (亮甲庄) area.

Note: Liangchiatun -- 121-57, 39-13? [redacted] 亮甲庄 [121-56, 39-13]

50X1-HUM

7. Soviet Army Headquarters in Port Arthur ordered that [redacted] all troops (8000 men) in the mountainous areas around Yangchiat'ao (楊家窩), 15 km east of Port Arthur, and in the mountains around Erhlungshan (二龍山*), eight km southeast of Pulantien, were to be withdrawn. Two thousand men were withdrawn with 30 12.5 cm guns, 10 mountain guns and 30 tanks. The men were loaded on two vessels and shipped to North Korea. It is rumored that they will be sent back to the USSR. The remaining 6000 men were moved to Liangchiatien and Tengshaho (122-01, 39-16) (?).

*Pulantien (121-59, 39-24); Erhlungshan (122-00, 39-22)

[redacted] a part of the Soviet forces stationed in Chinchou were moved to Wen-chiamiao (文家廟) (Wenchiat'un -- 121-23, 39-01?), three km north of Yingchengtzu (121-23, 39-00). Soviet troops are stationed mostly in Hsingkepu (121-34, 38-53), Tsamiaoing (早苗町) and Ch'enghok'ou (澄河口), near Dairen. (Shanghai Note: Presumably means that the Soviet troops on the southern end of the peninsula are concentrated in these places.)

[redacted] 60 Soviet soldiers, equipped with 12 trucks and two 75 mm mountain guns were moved to Port Arthur. They had been guarding Sanch'unshuts'un (三春樹村), in the vicinity of Dairen.

[redacted] 100 Soviet soldiers, equipped with 14 trucks and 12 mountain guns, were moved by train to Tengshaho. They had been stationed in Yingchengtzu.

50X1-HUM

11. Soviet troops guarding Choushuitzu and Shihchiach'eng (石家澄*) were withdrawn to Dairen [redacted] Their quarters were demolished prior to the withdrawal.

*Shihchiakou (121-33, 38-56) 石家溝

12. In Dairen [redacted] smaller Soviet units were combined with larger. The heavy guns mounted on hilltops in the vicinity of Chinchou were removed. Other areas, such as Shihho, remained heavily guarded.

[redacted] there has been martial law in Dairen Harbor. No one, including Soviet nationals, is permitted in the area without a special military permit.

14. Permits for traveling on the Kuantung Peninsula are issued by the Soviet Garrison commander, K'ochangnifu (Chinese phoneticization) (Kozhunov?).
